A frightful panic occurred in a public music hall in Liverpool, England, Friday night, caused by an alarm of fire. A frantic stampede occurred among the audience of four or five thousand people, resulting in the death of thirty-seven.

This is quite suggestive from the New York Tribune: "Another Greenback convention has been held in this city, with full sets of delegates from every district. It would be curious to see how big a convention the creditors of these delegates would make."

Hon. William E. Carter, of Grant County, has been nominated for the Assembly by the Republicans. Mr. Carter is a useful member, and his third nomination is a compliment to him. The Republicans generally are placing in nomination this fall the best men in the party.

The New York Herald mentions the fact that in the Seventh Congressional District of that State, the unusual spectacle is presented of two brothers running for Congress. One has been nominated by the Republicans and one by the Democrats. The initial letters of their names are also the same.

Congressman Williams spoke to an immense audience at Monroe, on Saturday evening. The political outlook in that district is exceedingly bright for the Republicans. The Republicans are strong and united, while scores of honest money Democrats will vote for Hazleton. Many of the Greenbackers who formerly were Republicans are returning to their old political home.

It seems as if it was about time to learn what special providence there is in the yellow fever epidemic, and those who have been in doubt about it will be glad to learn that one man at least thinks he has solved the problem. In a sermon preached yesterday in Chicago by Rev. Brooke Herford he asserted that it was an admonition of the Lord to banish dirt, to have cleaner homes, wider sheets, more air, and better water.

Cronin, who became notorious two years ago through the part he played in attempting to steal the State of Oregon for Tilden, is dead. It is said he was not naturally a bad man, but being under the influence of the Democratic conspirators, and needing money, he could not resist the temptation of accepting a bribe, and for a few thousand dollars made an effort to steal a vote for Tilden, which would have given him the Presidency. With a blackened character he has gone to his reward.

The leading Democratic paper of the West, the Louisville Courier-Journal, prints the following editorial note which is of some significance: "The result in Ohio means as to the next Presidential campaign, Grant and hard money, and it adds as to the general result of the October elections: 'The South ought to see in all this two things; first, the North is not ready to repudiate the national debt; and second, just yet, the country is not going to the devil. That is about the size of it, and the sooner it is realized the better for all parties.'"

The City Times talks about Clinton Babbitt being recaptured by the Republicans. Isn't the Times a little off on that question? Can it name the time when Mr. Babbitt was ever a Republican? Because Mr. Babbitt, like many other Democrats, believes in honest money, in maintaining the credit of the Government, and in the old-time financial doctrine of his party, does the Times regard him as being captured by the Republicans. Because he desires to vote for an honest Republican, one who dares defend a constitutional currency and the national faith, in preference to a sore-headed Republican, one who does not defend a constitutional currency nor the National faith, he is denounced as a proselyte.

A PANIC.

The Terrible and Fatal Panic at the Coliseum Theatre, at Liverpool, Saturday Night.

LIVERPOOL, Oct. 13.—There were between 4,000 and 5,000 persons in the Coliseum theatre last night when the terrible and fatal panic occurred. It appears that one of the performers was singing a comic song when a fire light commenced in the pit. The cry of "fire" was raised, and there was a general stampede for the box-office entrance, though there are said to have been five other doors open for the egress of the audience. The police inside and outside the theatre vainly endeavored to control the frantic crowd. The structure of the theatre at the point where the crush occurred is intricate. The exits converge into a narrow "well," and it is in this well that the suffocations took place, and the dead were piled six or seven feet deep. An upright position in the center of the doorway stopped the passage until one of the men attached to the theatre cut it away, enabling some of the imprisoned people to escape. A scene of the greatest excitement prevailed outside the theatre. The fire engines and fire escapes arrived and the firemen, joining the police, entered the building to rescue the people. The manager of the theatre, upon the first alarm, rushed into the pit from the entrance and shouted to the people to remain quiet, but his efforts were ineffectual until the theatre had been nearly cleared, when the dead and injured were carried to the Royal Infirmary. Two of the dead were women, three were boys, and thirty-two were strong able-bodied men of the laboring class.

THE FEVER.

Another Glimpse of Hope—A Decrease in the Death Rate.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 13.—The outlook is more favorable. Another gleam of hope beams in on us. The cool weather, the decrease of deaths and new cases, all tend to make brighter the future. Truly the worst has passed, and the dark clouds of sorrow and sadness which have hung like a very funeral pall over our once fair city, are, we pray, about to be driven aside.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Oct. 13.—Weather clear and pleasant.

The Board of Health report for the 24 hours ending at noon to-day: Deaths, 50; cases reported, 128; total cases to date 11,537; death, 3,461.

Brownsville, Tenn., Oct. 12.—New cases to-day, 9—six whites and three colored.

Vicksburg, Miss., October 13.—Weather clear and pleasant. One death here to-day, a child 4 years old. Several deaths are reported in the country, among them Mrs. E. L. Gray, wife of J. W. Gray, of Vicksburg. The fever continues spreading throughout the surrounding country. An increase of new cases and deaths is reported at Bayona and Bolton.

Cairo, Ill., Oct. 13.—We had a light frost this morning, but the sun is hot to-day. Four cases were reported to-day, but they are several days old. Billy Hamlin and a child of Mr. Bailey, in Wilcox block, died to-day. Dr. R. Waldo is not the same, with even chances to recover or not. John McEwen's condition is unchanged. Phil Howard is not so well. Phil Howard is better. James Cheney is very sick. Two deaths are expected to-night.

CRONIN DEAD.

Death of the Notorious Oregon Politician and Presidential Elector.

PORTLAND, Oregon, Oct. 13.—Eugene A. Cronin died here to-day. Cronin enjoyed some notoriety during the Presidential count.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

Eau Claire, Wis., Oct. 13.—J. D. Smith, fireman at Pishkham's mill, was caught by the belt which feeds the furnace with sawdust, on yesterday morning and instantly killed. His left arm and both legs were torn from his body, presented a shocking sight.

The war cry of "fraud" is up with the Democrats. Cyprian dispatches and the spirit of Gramercy Park were too much for him.

upon the Amer? In all probability Hyderabad will sympathize with the Amer? for Hyderabad is not ever friendly to our rule in India. There are 13,000,000 people in Hyderabad alone, and the danger from such an element cannot be mistaken. Again, we see in Afghanistan a country difficult to enter, of which the Khyber Pass of 1846 gave a fearful illustration. Then again we see Russia and the Amer? on "friendly terms, and Russia is to-day the friend and England the foe of Islamism. If Russia can intrigue so as to place the champion of Mohammedanism in India and the danger may become serious. There is at present a great deal of dissatisfaction, and many of the native Princes simply accept the situation, but would be glad of a change. There are 230,000,000 Mussulmans in India, and they will probably all sympathize with Afghanistan and with Russia. The Central Asia Khanates, who constituted Russia's weakness in Asia, have become her strength, and they will probably thirst to resist the Amer? The situation is full of complications, and the turn of events may plunge England into a fierce fight for Northern India.

MORE RASCALITY.

Was Samuel J. a Party to the Rascality in Florida?—Some Strong Evidence to Show that He Was.

New York Tribune.

A prominent Democratic politician and ex-State Senator of this State, who was conspicuous as one of Tilden's supporters in the Presidential campaign, was asked to-day, among other things, if he believed that these dispatches could have been sent and received at Tilden's house without his knowledge of their existence.

He said: "On the contrary, I know that Tilden knew everything in relation to them. The late Mr. Orton, in reply to my question whether any of these dispatches were delivered personally to Mr. Tilden, assured me that Mr. Tilden had received many of them, and had read them before sending them to any one else."

"Have you heard any expression from any other Democrats in regard to these dispatches?"

"Yes; I have talked with several Democrats, and they coincide with me. I have not heard one honest Democrat, not connected directly with the cabal, attempt to deny the truthfulness of the dispatches."

"What do you think of Mr. Tilden's prospects?"

"I think he is politically dead. It is surprising to me that he still continues these cipher dispatches in other matters. That Marquette matter is disgraceful."

Congressman Scott Lord, who has been a strong Tilden man, and who came near being nominated by Tilden for Governor in 1876, says:

"I am very sorry that such occurrences as these telegrams appear to reveal should have taken place; but if such telegrams were sent, it is due to the public that they should be exposed. What is to become of Tilden? His political career, in any case, it seems to me, is at an end. I have been an earnest Democrat, a personal friend of Mr. Tilden, and an advocate of his election. I have not seen Tilden recently, but I have been told by one of his friends that he consistently denied to him having had anything to do with sending the cipher telegrams. If he had no knowledge of them, of course he was not personally responsible, but it would be difficult for the public mind to distinguish beneath his acts and those of his intimate friends and agents. As to the telegrams, there is only one possible way of accounting for that consistent with Tilden's innocence, and that is that there were some persons around him who were willing to advance large sums of money with expectation of reaping their reward when he was President. It is somewhat extraordinary that any one should be so stupid as to take a stand for another without the knowledge of the person benefited. But it is not impossible."

John Kelly was asked, "What do you think about the dispatches in relation to buying an Electoral vote?"

"They are terribly disgraceful dispatches. Will they lessen Tilden's influence in the Democratic party?"

Kelly paused a moment before replying, and then said: "They cannot but be exceedingly damaging to his influence, and especially in this State, where the newspapers will undoubtedly print the dispatches in full."

Reporter: "Hewitt's friend to think that Mr. Tilden was not aware of the sending or receipt of the dispatches."

"Mr. Kelly smiled and then said meditatively, 'I have been astonished at the nature of the dispatches, because I knew that Tilden was an extremely cautious man. It is well known that his pre-arranging habits have led him to great many golden opportunities during the past three or four years. The dispatches are contrary to his usual cautiousness of action. Whoever sent them, it was a most reckless, imprudent, and immoral thing to do.'"

Some of Prentice's Sayings.

A recent writer reproduces from the Louisville Journal some of George D. Prentice's witticisms, which were not dependent upon time and circumstances, as most of them naturally were, for their point and force. Following are a few of them:

"To keep your friends treat them kindly; to kill them, treat them often."

"He who reels and staggers most in the journey of life takes the straightest cut to the devil."

"Men should not think too much of themselves, and yet a man should be careful not to forget himself."

"A dinner to which a man is not invited generally sits hardest on his stomach."

"There are many men whose tongues might govern multitudes if they could govern their tongues."

"The doctors ought to escape calumny. No man living has a right to speak ill of them."

"The working of a corkscrew is about the only thing best achieved by indirection."

"The reduction of postal facilities has gone too far. The mail passed through town the other day in a couple of stockings tied over the back of a bulldog."

"A few days ago the freedom of New York city was presented to Mr. Van Buren in a gold snuff box. There was plenty of room in the box for all the freedom that New York has enjoyed for many years."

"There are two periods when Congress does no business. One is before the holidays and the other after."

"Were it not ungenerous to remind a man of his natural deformities, we should inform the editor of the Times of the deformities of his subject. The subject is one which has special medical interest; but it will be seen to have also a large general interest, when it is remembered how momentous a part hallucinations have played sometimes at critical periods of human history. Take, for example, the mighty work which was done in the deliverance of France from England's dominion by a peasant girl of eighteen—Joan of Arc, the famous Maid of Orleans—who was inspired to her mission by the vision which she saw, and the commands which she heard, of St. Michael and other holy persons. Now, as there are few persons now, it is said, who believe that St. Michael really appeared to this enraptured maiden, and, as few, if any, will doubt that she herself sincerely believed that he did, one must needs suppose that her visions were hallucinations generated by the enthusiasm of a mind which was in a singularly excited strain of religious and patriotic feeling."

America vs. England.

Over 500 blast furnaces and 3,000 puddling furnaces are now lying idle in England, and the list is daily increasing. The cause of this is chiefly the decline in railroad building and the consequent stoppage of the iron industry in America. Half a decade ago England was selling the United States 1,000,000 tons of iron and steel annually; now she ships this way less than 100,000 tons per year. The home market of our country is supplied by home mines, and last year produced 2,344,000 tons of pig iron, or three times the amount produced fifteen years ago, at which time none of the ore was rolled in this country but was treated abroad. At the present time the greater part of our entire product is here prepared for use.

A Health-Destroying Vapor.

Is generated by the action of the sun's rays upon damp decaying vegetation, stagnant pools, and marshy, low lying tracts. The true nature of this miasma is by no means clearly understood, but there are two facts in relation to it that are the first, is that the periodical fevers which it breeds are of the most virulent type; the second is, that these malarial fevers are rarely cured, although they may be ameliorated, by the ordinary remedies employed to overcome them. The true antidote to the effects of miasma is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This medicine is one of the most popular remedies of an age of successful proprietary specifics, and is in immense demand wherever on this Continent fever and ague exists. A wingless fly three times a day is the best possible preparative for encountering a malarious atmosphere, regulating the liver, and invigorating the stomach.

Early Sunday morning there was a short but sharp thunder storm. One bolt of lightning struck a tree on Sloan's farm near the city limits. The tree was literally cut off just above the butt, and the whole top set down as if for replanting. The butt was scattered into fine wood.
Last Saturday afternoon a little son of H. M. Waldo, of the Fourth ward, boy who climbed up on the back of the family horse, which stood hitched to a post in front of the door. The horse became frightened, threw himself down, tipped the buggy over, smashing it somewhat, and tangling the harness so that it had to be cut before the horse could get up again. No damage done to the boy.
Rev. Henry Paville, the new pastor of Court street church, yesterday morning, preached an excellent sermon on the text, "Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord of Hosts." He made a few personal remarks concerning himself and his new field of labor, and made a very favorable impression upon his hearers.
It is time to get out the griddle and have hot cakes to go with the morning's coffee. James Clark & Co. are now making some No. 1 buckwheat from the new crop, and they warrant it as the purest of the pure. The same is true as to their bran and feed.
Rev. H. Sewell, the new pastor of the First Methodist church, occupied that pulpit for the first time last evening, his text being "This man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them." His sermon was a strong and practical one and was well received. The church was handsomely adorned with floral decorations, and above the pulpit stood forth "Welcome." The people gave their new pastor a cordial reception, and seem greatly pleased at having secured so worthy a man as their leader.
Miss Lavinia Goodell, of this city, is attending the Woman's Congress, in session at Providence. The Journal of that place says of her: "Miss Lavinia Goodell, a lawyer, of Janesville, Wisconsin, was introduced in complimentary terms. Mrs. Doggett had just said that while a law was in force it should be obeyed, even if it was a bad law. Miss Goodell said that she did not agree with Mrs. Doggett. When she was younger she helped to break the fugitive slave law just as often as she could. If a law was morally bad, it ought to be treated as if it was no law. The sentiment was very heartily applauded."

THE WEATHER.

The thermometer at 7 o'clock this morning stood at 57 degrees above and at 2 o'clock this afternoon at 76 degrees above. Clear.
The indications to-day are, for the Tennessee, the Ohio valley, and upper lake regions, warmer, clear, or partly cloudy weather, winds mostly southerly, stationary or falling barometer.

A RALLY AT FOOTVILLE.

There was a rousing Republican rally at Footville, Saturday night. Mr. A. H. Baxter gave a clear, logical address, which was well received. He presented arguments which could not but strike home with force, and his hearers gave him a cordial response of endorsement.

PARTING PARSONS.

The Presbyterian Preachers (Close Their Conference and Bid Each Other Good Bye.

The Presbyterian Synod of Wisconsin has closed its meeting, the business being completed Saturday afternoon. Saturday evening there was an interesting meeting held in the interests of home missions, in accordance with the programme already given.

Yesterday several of the pulpits of the other denominations were occupied by visiting Presbyterians, and their sermons were cordially received by the congregations.

In the afternoon there was a communion service in the Presbyterian church in which a large number participated.

At 6 o'clock in the evening an interesting meeting was held to discuss the Sunday school work. A number of speakers gave brief addresses, and many valuable hints and thoughts were given to those present.

LAST EVENING'S SERVICE.

A large audience gathered at the Congregational church last evening, at the union meeting held under the auspices of the Presbyterian Synod. The topic of discussion assigned for the evening was "The Church." The first speaker was Rev. T. G. Watson, of Waukesha, who discussed the question "What is meant by the Church?" He thought the true church was the holy Catholic church. It was the Catholic church in the sense of its being universal, which was the original meaning of the word. It was the holy church because its members are called out from among the lost and made separate from the world, which was the original significance of the word "holy." It was holy too because every true member of the church has the true spirit of God sanctifying his own spirit. The church was termed a temple, because God was there. It was termed a vine because it should bear fruit. It was compared to an army because the church should be brave and obedient. It was a vineyard because humble and daily work was required. It was the body of Christ, and thus closely joined to him, yet subject to the head. It was the family—God's household—and last and best of all it had been termed the bride of Christ, because of its near and dear relationship to him.

Rev. W. F. Brown, of Beloit, was assigned the question, "What is the record of the Church to-day?" He deemed it the record of a divine, growing power for good. It was a power, and was felt as a power. It was shown by its effect upon the literature of the world, and still more by its effect upon the life of the world. It was a growing power, and its record to-day showed it to be such. It was a power for good as shown by the way in which it had lifted mankind up, and all its workings showed that it sprang from Divinity.

Rev. J. Chapin, of Neenah, spoke next on the means necessary for the advancement of church interests. Among these means was the preacher. God had sent angels in times past to release the Apostles from prison and sent them out to preach the gospel. He might have sent angels, but he preferred working through man, and the human preacher was one of the great means of advancing the church. The house of worship was another means. Communion and comfortable places for people to gather in had more effect than many think. The sexton's part is by no means unimportant. Strangers should be cordially greeted and made to feel at home. There should be good music and other pleasant features of worship. These things were practical means of helping the cause along.

Rev. F. Z. Rositter, of Oshkosh, spoke of the signs of its triumph. He followed the history of the church in the past showing how its victories had been prophesied and how fulfilled, and then pictured out the signs which should precede the last grand triumph of the church.

Rev. T. C. Kirkwood, of Fond du Lac, who presided at the meeting, closed it with a few appropriate remarks, in which he took occasion to thank the citizens of Janesville in behalf of the Synod, for their kindly reception, and for the hospitable manner in which the members had been treated. He also thanked the churches for their brotherly treatment, and Christian courtesy, and then declared the synod adjourned until the second Thursday in October, 1879, when it will meet at the First Presbyterian church at Fond du Lac.

THIS MORNING the doors of the Presbyterian church were thrown open, and most of the visitors met there but informally. They exchanged parting words with each other, talked over the success of the gathering, and the outlook for another year, and then scattered in different directions to their respective fields of labor to again take up the burdens of ministerial life.

The sessions have been marked by great harmony and good-will, and have been of more than usual interest to those of that denomination.

TRUE HELPERS.

In the Sunday School of All Souls church Rev. Jenk Li Jones yesterday organized a temperance society to be called "The Janesville Branch of the True Helpers." The chief new feature of the organization is that the pledge is given for only three months, and at the end of this time can be renewed for another three months. In this way the Society expires and creates itself anew four times a year, and to join it once implies no obligation to renew. A very neat little badge has been provided for the members, it being on white ribbon with the words, "For Their Sake, On Honor," printed upon it in red. The Society elected the following as its officers:

President—Jenk Li Jones.
Secretary and Treasurer—Miss Ida Harris.

Directors—Seth Cushman, Theodore Guernsey, Nellie Baker.

WAIT A LITTLE.

The Cases of the Alleged Burglars Continued Until Wednesday.

This morning William Lee and John Roethinger Jr., whose arrest was chronicled in Saturday's Gazette, were brought before Justice Prichard on the charge of burglarizing Lawrence & Atwood's store. They pleaded not guilty, and the examination was continued until next Wednesday afternoon. Bail was fixed at $500 each, and in default of the same they were taken back to jail again. Lee seems to be a stranger here, though he was seen on the streets a few days before the burglary was committed. He seemed to take the situation coolly, but Roethinger appears badly rattled. It is expected that further developments will be made, and the prosecution claim that they have good reason to expect a conviction.

SURPRISING A SINGER.

Dr. M. A. Newman, has severed his connection with Christ church choir, and taken the musical directorship of All Souls church. He has had charge of the Christ church choir for over five years past and under his leadership it has ranked second to none in the city. It is with regret that the church takes leave of him, and last Saturday evening a means of expressing their appreciation of his services was found. On his return to his home he discovered an elegant easy chair and foot-rest which bore the following inscription:

Dr. M. A. Newman. From the ladies of Christ church in grateful remembrance of faithful services.

The present is an elegant one, but fully merited, and the well-wishes of many will go with him to his new work.

THE CAMPAIGN IN LA PRAIRIE.

There was a very enthusiastic campaign meeting at La Prairie Saturday night. Mr. George Sherman called the meeting to order and nominated Wm. H. Stark as Chairman. Mr. Stark on being elected unanimously, took the chair, and set the ball rolling by a telling address concerning the financial questions of the day. He then introduced H. A. Patterson, of this city, who spoke for an hour and a half, and dealt the Greenback phantom some hard blows. He was encouraged by frequent cheers, and the audience evidently endorsed most heartily the Republican view of the situation as set forth by him.

ARRIVAL OF ARMS.

To-day sixty breech-loading Springfield rifles arrived for use by the Janesville Veterans. The arms were taken to the Armory this afternoon, and the Vets will use them for the first time this evening.

The Atlantic Cables announce that another of America's industries is entitled to the first award, and in this instance, as we expected, Messrs. Wm. S. Kimball & Co., of Rochester, N. Y., receive after careful deliberation of the Supreme Jury, a silver medal, honorable mention and diplomas for their world-wide and reputable Vanity Fair Tobacco and Cigarettes, now on sale in every quarter of the globe. This firm produce nothing but first-class goods, and whenever their names are attached to an article people can depend on its being guaranteed. They have brought out several new things of late, and chief among them a new brand of Smoking Tobacco, named after a celebrated plant grown in the Indies, called Zalacca. This tobacco is for smokers who wish to economize at this time.

ATTENTION, ODD FELLOWS!

M. P. Lindsay, Grand Instructor of Wisconsin, will meet the members of Janesville City Lodge No 90, at Odd Fellows' hall, Tuesday evening, October 15th. A full attendance is requested. A cordial invitation is extended to the members of Wisconsin Lodge No 14, and all visiting members of the order.

CITY NOTICES.

Call for Hodson's Best, from Old Wheat.

Procrastination is a thief. It neglects hygienic laws, and entails loss on its victims. Sozodent says, "let me preserve the health of your mouth." Procrastination whispers, "wait until your teeth need filling." Break this slavery; use Sozodent and keep your masticators until old age. Get it at once.

A procrastinator puts off, and Spalding's Glue holds on forever.

Liver is King.

The Liver is the imperial organ of the whole human system, as it controls the life, health and happiness of man. When it is disturbed in its proper action, all kinds of ailments are the natural result. The digestion of food, the movements of the heart and blood, the action of the brain and nervous system, are all immediately connected with the workings of the Liver. It has been successfully proved that Green's August Flower is unequalled in curing all persons afflicted with Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint, and all the numerous symptoms that result from an unhealthy condition of the Liver and Stomach. Sample bottles to try, 10 cents. Positively sold in all towns on the Western Continent. Three doses will prove that it is just what you want.

Excessive Heat.

And unwholesome diet at this season of the year may speedily carry you to the grave. Parker's Ginger Tonic, by its corrective action on the entire digestive apparatus, will not only unfailingly cure Diarrhea, Dysentery, Cholera, Cholera Infantum, Colic, Cramps, Spasms, etc., but will prevent those dangerous disorders from attacking the system. It may save your life, and should always be kept in the house. This pleasant remedy is unequalled for teething children, nursing mothers. Possessing many additional virtues of other valuable tonics, it is far superior to Essences of Ginger, without their constipating effects, and while more invigorating than liquors never intoxicates, nor creates any desire for stimulants. It cures Dyspepsia, and its varied symptoms of Headache, Nervousness, Palpitation of the Heart, Wakefulness, Sour Stomach, Costiveness, Liver Disorders, Furred Tongue, Low Spirits, Neuragic and Rheumatic Pains, enables you to enjoy the fruits and vegetables of the season without fear, and gives comfort after a hearty meal.
